In Loving Memory

Born Walter Francis Davis "Buddy" on Jan. 5, 1931, in Beaumont, TX. The man who grew to be 6 feet, 9 inches tall suffered a bout with polio, which temporarily paralyzed both his legs and arms. He later went on to win an Olympic Gold Medal in 1952 for the High Jump and he won not one, but two NBA Championship Rings (one with the Philadelphia Warriors & one with the St. Louis Hawks) Margaret Davis preceded Buddy in death in 2018 after 68 years of marriage. Together they raised nine children and had "dozens" of grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Buddy was one of the few remaining grandchildren of the Founding 4 Newton Sisters, Nancy A. "Sister" Newton Davis born in 1873; she married W. Mack Davis.

Lakesha Renee Dixon passed away June 9, 2020 - Lakesha was born on April 19, 1982 in Sulphur, LA to Samuel Dixon and Peggy Stark. She will be remembered for her love of family and friends. Survivors include her two children, Brooklyn Chiasson and Darien Chiasson and her loving mother, Peggy Sue Stark. She is preceded in death by her stepfather, Billy Wayne Stark, II.
